

STAFF SMALL GROUP:

Question #7- What surprised you the most in the small group session?

The 3 students whom I thought would clam up didn't

Everyone's honesty

The stories of some students who I would have never thought they have /are dealing with such deep issues

How students cared for one another

How much our students are happy with the school

The ability that rapport is built to the students so quickly

How much people have in common

Open, reflective attitude & respect

People rallying in support of each other

How much kids owned their behavior

That one student (bully) was dealing with huge home issues.

Grief & loss is huge with students

The integrity of my students; honesty

How much the kids opened up

How willing to open up some were

The amount of openness the students gave

Some of the staff /students went very deep

Some of the things students shared about their lives outside of school

The depth achieved in a short period of time

Some of their struggles with their families and friends

The intensity of the stories shared