

SMALL GROUP SESSION COMMENTS:

Question #6 - What surprised you the most in the small group session?

How much all of the class has in common

How connected and comfortable we became around each other in such a small time frame

How simple it was to gain a new perspective on people. All you have to do is listen.

How wrong I was about everyone

That is easy to make new habits

That people actually care

The people I thought were the happiest also have problems

How many people, especially the quiet ones, who opened up and had a voice

Some people have bigger hearts than they seem

My brother loves me

How many people are hurting

How many people had apologies to make to other people and the way our class was

How many people are being disrespected in our school

Everyone needed change, we all have things going on but we came together as a big group

How supportive the class was with each other

How amazing everyone is and how much people touched my heart

I learned many things that will change how I see and treat people. You can't judge someone

How many boys that do have feelings

People opening

How many people are going through the same as me

I didn't think everybody had a story, I was oblivious wrong

Some of the things that people went through and how they felt about different situations

So many people has their own issues

I did not know that a lot people are feeling the same thing too

Their stories behind their personalities

That everyone gave 100%

A lot of people made a lot of mistakes, and mostly ended up getting judged by people

That everyone trusted each other

That we all feel the same way about the school and we have more similarity's then differences.

That everyone have a complicated life

Everyone participated

I was surprised about how all my classmates have been through something and never shared it before

How everyone was able to really connect with one another

Everyone was 100% honest and open

How we all opened up

How emotional and changing it was

Hearing about most people having divorced parents

The teacher's stories

The hardship that some people go through

How many people said that they would change

How little trust the entire class has towards each other

That my class said they were all willing to change

How I looked at people afterward

Everybody has feelings

How I thought and looked so deep into myself

How many people had amazing & unique story's

How wrong I was about someone

How touching it was

How many feel they wear a mask

A lot of people had a lot on their chests that they wanted gone

How much I had in common with certain people

That people are really good at hiding things

The people you think have such a good life really don't

That it helped people stop being bullies

How much bullying has affected people in my class

That everyone had such deep backstories

How much some people have gone through